

Common Elective and Acute Problems in the General Surgery of Childhood

4-5 December 2013

RCS London

This course is aimed at Consultant General Surgeons with a paediatric practice and trainees in general surgery intending to develop a sub-specialty interest in paediatric surgery. This course is also relevant to core surgical trainees and ST3 trainees in paediatric surgery. The course content is mapped to the General Surgery of Childhood section of the General Surgery ISCP syllabus.

Course contents include:

- Elective problems
  - Paediatric urology
  - Childhood constipation
- Acute problems
  - Acute scrotum
  - The vomiting child
- Medicolegal issues

Who should attend?

CT1-2, ST3-8 and consultants in general surgery

CT1-2 and ST3 in paediatric Surgery

Course Fee

Full course fee: £520

RCS members: £468

Course Director

Mr G Jawaheer

Consultant Paediatric Surgeon,
Birmingham Children's Hospital

Learning outcomes/Benefits

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Assess children with common conditions
- Display an increased knowledge base
- Arrange appropriate investigations
- Formulate an evidence-based management plan

10%
DISCOUNT
FOR MEMBERS