

Common Elective and Acute Problems in the General Surgery of Childhood

4-5 December 2014

RCS London

This two-day course is aimed at consultant general surgeons with a paediatric practice and trainees in general surgery intending to develop a subspecialty interest in paediatric surgery. The course content is mapped to the General Surgery of Childhood section of the General Surgery ISCP syllabus.

Learning outcomes

- Display an increased knowledge base
- Assess children with common conditions
- Arrange appropriate investigations
- Formulate an evidence-based management plan

Who should attend?

CT1-2, ST3-8, consultants in general surgery and CT1-2 and ST3 in paediatric surgery and SAS Grades

Course fee

Full Course Fee: £520

Course Director

Mr G Jawaheer

Consultant Paediatric Surgeon,
Birmingham Children's Hospital
Sponsored by George Drexler Foundation

Course content

Elective problems

- Paediatric urology
- Head and neck swellings
- Childhood constipation
- Fluid management

Acute problems

- The vomiting child
- Urinary tract infection
- Trauma
- Pain management

Medicolegal issues

- Child protection
- Ethics
- Consent

Additional information

If you are attending this course as a participant in a non-training grade, this course has been allocated 12 CPD points counting towards your Continuing Professional Development.

10%
DISCOUNT
FOR RCS
MEMBERS

Further information and to book your place

<http://www.rcseng.ac.uk/courses>