

5th Meeting- International Society of Pediatric Wound care (ISPeW)
in conjunction with
British Association of Paediatric Surgeons (BAPS)
International Pediatric Endosurgery Group (IPEG)

ISPeW

International Society
for Pediatric Wound Care

www.ispew.org

18th July 2017
Hilton London Metropole
London, England

Executive board: S Keswani (President)
S Akita, G Ciprandi, CM Durante, R Kirsner,
G La Scala, M Romanelli, AK Saxena, AB Schluer

Preliminary Program and Meeting Information

- Management of wounds in neonates and infants with complicated congenital anomalies
- Wound care after anorectal malformation surgery and surgery of hypospadias
- Pediatric pressure ulcers: Research and new trends, from bench to bedside
- Prevention of devices associated injuries in critical intensive areas
- Neonatal and infants burns: First aid to management of scars
- Current paradigm for management of extravasation injuries
- Ten tips for improving patient experience with wound care
- The do and don'ts of negative pressure wound therapy in pediatrics
- Management of pediatric wound infections: From soft tissue to surgical site
- ISPeW for nursing: state of the art symposium for pediatric wound care nurses
- Building a neonatal and pediatric wound care center in 2017 from the ground up
- Next generation wound care programs: Integration with Cardiac, Trauma and Oncology

Fee	Until 31st Mar	From 1st April
ISPEW member	£ 150	£ 175
Nurses	£ 100	£ 125
BAPS/IPEG member	£ 100	£ 125
Regular participant	£ 175	£ 200

Important dates/deadlines	Date
Abstract submission opens	15 th Nov 2016
Abstract deadline	15 th Feb 2017
Abstract notification	15 th Mar 2017
Fee payment (accepted paper)	1 st Apr 2017

Abstract submission: www.ispew.org

Program Chairman: Amulya K Saxena, MD

Email :amulya.saxena@chelwest.nhs.uk