

International Bowel Reconstruction Masterclass & Conference

A practical masterclass and conference exploring the applications of the latest autologous bowel reconstruction techniques

Trainee day (Presentation and Practical) - Tuesday 2nd December 2014

- The presentation day is aimed at trainee surgeons
- Practical experience with the two most common lengthening procedures (with PBA assessment)
- Abstract presentation and prize

Masterclass – Wednesday 3rd - Friday 5th December 2014

- The masterclass is aimed at experienced surgeons
- To allow discussion between the experts and the delegates
- To provide hands-on sessions to improve skills in bowel reconstructive surgery through practice under experts' guidance
- To describe postoperative clinical results and challenges
- Review of complex personal cases
- CME accredited

Abstract topics

- Ethical dilemma in Intestinal Failure
- Intestinal Failure
- Management of abdominal emergencies in newborns
- Medical and surgical complication in Short Bowel Syndrome

Notification of acceptance: 15th October 2014

Please submit abstract presentations by September 30th 2014 to Paul Bolton
(p.bolton@salford.ac.uk)

Cost to attend:

For trainees the cost of the presentation day is £149 + VAT
For the Masterclass, delegates can register for £800 + VAT for the three day course.

How to Register:

EUPSA members will receive 15% off the registration fee. To register your space, please contact Paul Bolton on +44 (0) 161 295 4376 or email p.bolton@salford.ac.uk

Course organisers::

Prof. Antonino Morabito MD, FRCS (Ed), FRCS(Eng), FICS - Course Director
Riccardo Coletta MD- Course Designer